

First Front Door

Buying your first home? You could get up to $5,000 to help with your down payment and closing costs!

If you qualify for First Front Door (FFD), you could receive $3 for every $1 you put toward your down payment and closing costs – up to $5,000.

Who Qualifies

FFD recipients must be first-time homebuyers and have a household income of no more than 80 percent of your area's median income. You are considered a first-time homebuyer if:

- You have not owned a home in the past three years;
- You and your spouse have not owned a home together in the past three years; or
- You owned a home when you were married, but you are now buying a home as a single person

Visit www.firstfrontdoor.com to review additional FFD requirements.

How to Apply

- See a list of participating lenders at www.firstfrontdoor.com.
- Contact an FFD lender to discuss their mortgage process and your FFD eligibility.
