

Transformational Employment Opportunity

Build A Better Community Today

Transformational employment serves as a vital step for sustaining long-term recovery in individuals who have completed Substance Use Disorder (SUD) treatment. Through transformational employment, we can connect our neighbors with meaningful employment opportunities, work together to erase the stigma associated with SUD recovery, and strengthen communities across eight counties in Eastern Kentucky as individuals share their skills and talents in meaningful employment opportunities.

"More Bread, More Jobs" by UN Women Gallery is licensed under CC BY-NC-ND 2.0. To view a copy of this license, visit this link.

Join us Thursday, June 15 from 10 am to noon for an in-person informational session or Thursday, June 15 from 1-3 pm for Zoom-based session for prospective transformational employers. Participation is free as part of an Appalachian Regional Commission INSPIRE Grant.

Why attend this session?

- Receive information about resources and best practices for hiring individuals in recovery
- Meet other employers who have had success with Transformational Employment
- Learn about toolkits and existing programs
- Meet current internship providers
- HOMES, Inc., Whitesburg, KY
- Housing Development Alliance, Hazard, KY
- Find out why Transformational Employment is a win-win situation
- Hear from current Substance Use Disorder treatment providers
- Hear from current interns
- Opportunity to sign up to consider applications from participants who have completed a 12-month internship program.

Fahe, along with internship partners Housing Development Alliance and HOMES, Inc. and recovery partners Kentucky River Community Care and Addiction Recovery Center, is working to strengthen the existing transformational employment ecosystem in Eastern Kentucky.

Why participate?

- Access a growing pool of workforce-ready candidates
- Contribute to a stronger Eastern Kentucky economy
- Help Eastern Kentucky communities recover
- Support Substance Use Disorder (SUD) recovery

To register or for more information contact Jacob Humes, Associate Project Manager at Fahe, at (859) 228-2122 or Jhumes@fahe.org www.fahe.org/transformationalemployment

