

FEMA Appeals Program

SBP helps survivors (for free) receive their maximum eligible amount of FEMA awards for Home Repair and Personal Property to bring their home back to a safe, sanitary and functional state as quickly as possible.

Results of SBP's FEMA Appeals Program

- Survivors see a 65.7% increase in their total FEMA award.
- Survivors are awarded $7,991.83 in additional FEMA funds to support their recovery.

Checklist to Qualify for Appeals Assistance:

- ✓ Received Initial Award or response letter from FEMA
- ✓ Not eligible (or not required to apply) for an SBA loan
- ✓ Do not have insurance or coverage is less than $37,900
- ✓ Occupied home/rental unit at the time of the disaster.

Survivor Appeal Award Examples

- Ashley initially received $9,779.50 from FEMA. With SBP's assistance, she received an additional $10,333.00 to repair her home.
- Ernest initially received $2,677.11 from FEMA. With SBP's assistance, he received an additional $3,001.39 to replace his personal property.

Finding Local Opportunities for Overcoming Disaster

Is your business or organization helping Eastern Kentucky Recover?

If your business or organization is involved in the recovery work of the flood of 2022, we want to hear from you. There could be a means of partnering with EKCEP on wage reimbursements for clean up and recovery and/or humanitarian aid, if applicable.

If your business or organization fits this profile, fill out the survey at ekcep.us/survey or scan the QR code below on your smart phone:

The EKY FLOOD program can recruit workers and cover their wages to assist in recovery efforts for up to 12 months. For more info, visit ekcep.org.
